MOMENTS

HELD IN OUR MINDS . . .

TREASURED FOREVER . . .

Slowly the time approaches. Gradually you realize the end is near. Suddenly you are aware of the time which has elapsed. The moments from fun times linger in the memories which now encompass you. What seems only yesterday is now yesteryear, and that which was tomorrow is today. All the memories which have been and are just being made are combined into one . . . the school years. As the imminent day of graduation nears, often the mind is boggled with the active lifestyle you have grown into. Boyfriends, girlfriends, football, basketball, cheer-leading, chorus, band, dances, drill team — all these activities clamber for your attention. Schedules and appointments tend to make us forget to enter those funny, serious, and special moments into our memory. This year the 1989-1990 yearbook would like to dedicate its pages to you — the classes of Ellendale High School. To you, the people whose voices will forever linger in the halls. To you the leaders, parents, and teachers of the future. To you whom have provided the special times and events which will make our brief stay here memorable. To you friends, we will entertain, remind, and forever dedicate these once in a lifetime . . .

... From Past to Present ...

Remember when we were young? That weird time that seemed to last forever. A time of scrawny bodies, limited (if any) coordination, and unruly hair. On top of these pleasantries were the added joys of experiencing puberty, new experiences with make-up, and yes even the . . . opposite sex. It was an unusual time which made us appreciate grade school even more. We knew we couldn't go back, only onward. Little did we know that it would all turn out okay in the end. We were able to go from fine instrumentalists (?) with good study habits and an ever cheery smile. No don't get discouraged! I know it sounded hopeless, but really we're okay now! Since then we have come to adapt a style all our own coupled with just a touch of rebelliousness. Our personality is a mixture of all we have learned and experienced. As for the cheery smile, we still have that, but the childish passiveness has become a more solid thing called stubbornness. See, I told you we turned out okay . . .

Top to bottom, l to r, Freshman Trumpeters: Kevin K. and Jeff K. (1986), Joel M. (1986), Deb W. (1986), Randy H. (1987); macho men of the '90's — Gregg K., Clay W. and Jeff K., John K., Wild things — Suzanne B., Darcy S., and Deb W., "Bill and Ted" of EHS — Bill Agee and Chris G., Senioritis shines through — Class members of 1990.

From the Homecoming songs (1986) and the Bugaloo (1897) to the Homecoming royalty of 1989.

From l to r: Deb W., Suzanne B., and Missy P., Randy H., Homecoming Royalty 1989, Queen Deb H. and King Randy H.

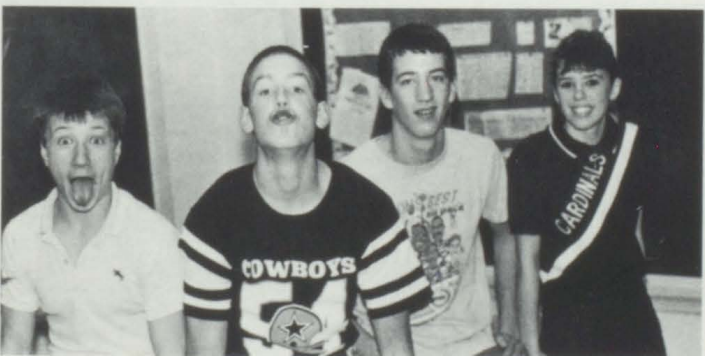

The Senior class has also moved from the lazy, hazy days of Freshmanhood and Typing class to the ever demanding and stressful time of Senioritis and English IV.

From l to r, Freshman Typing Class: Deb W. and Deb H., Missy P. and Nikole M., English IV.

From "Class officers" to class officers. We have moved to the boys vs. girls standpoint to the more mature form of government: The sucker with the most votes HAS to do the job.

Everyone Has Their Moment . . .

From l to r: A serious truck drivin' man — Jeff K. One of those days?? — Gregg K. and Jason B. Suzanne B.

From l to r: See somethin' you like?? — Deb H. and Darcy S., "Definitely radical," — Chris G., Harley Man??? — Aaron VanNoy, Tell him Bill!!! — Bill Agee and Lincoln S.

Ooooh, FEROCIOUS!! — Clay W. and Jeff K. All dressed up and no place to go — Denise H. "Wait! I can explain . . ." — Ryan P. Barb Jury

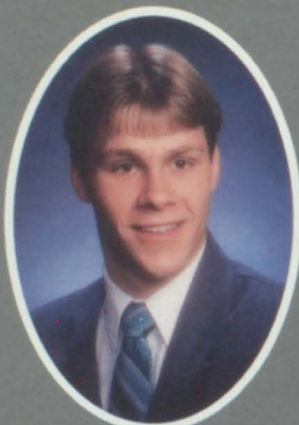

Smiles and laughter linger
As we walk through years past.
Hearts become heavy.
The time has come at last.
Through the years we've bonded —
Becoming a family.
Quarrels, teasing, and hurt was there —
Of course we didn't always agree.
But we kept it together —
We saw our years through.
Now in a short while
Our family will be all new.
Our futures now progress.
We each have paths to take.
But no matter where we go
Nor what new friends we make
Never will we forget each other
And memories past.
For a "... friend's a friend forever ..."
And that will surely last ...

Jammin' Juniors

Fun or fun-d raising? That was the question facing the Junior class this year. Always on the lookout for the chocoholic they can sell a candy bar to, the Juniors were continuing the saga of raising money for that one event that only a Senior can appreciate — Prom. Between fund raising and deciding on the perfect setting the Juniors have been able to keep busy. Although neither of the chores they have been faced with were easy, they have pulled it off with their usual stick-it-through-til-the-end ability. However, now that they had accomplished these duties, they were definitely ready for the experience awaiting them — now it's on to the job that is looked forward to (well, kind of) — being a SENIOR.

Sophomore Seconds ...

Yo Dudes!! Thought we'd write a little bit about our most triumphant year. Our year started out with speeches in Mr. Masset's — what a drag! Like hey, that wasn't so bad cuz we always had second hour's Mr. Horner to boost our spirits. Then, of course, we had the weekends to party, that was such a rush? From Mr. Ulmer's "learning experiences" to Health Occ, where we did some real bodily damage, we've had some real casual times. We, of course, are the class of 1992 and we will rock this place to the ground ... and forever be in Mr. Ranum's memory. We would like to leave you with these final parting words —

Freshman Flashes

The members of the freshman class were involved in many school activities this year. Mainly sports such as both girls' and boys' basketball, football, wrestling, drill team, cheerleading, and volleyball. Driver's Ed. was probably our favorite class, but I think it was probably Mr. Gall's worst nightmare. Even though a lot of us got kicked out, most of us still passed (at least the written test). Homecoming week was an interesting part of this year, we all had fun walking around laughing at each other on Nerd Day.

For me this was a really great year, it's the one year when you are between your "old" Junior high years and your "on-coming" High school years. For the class of -1993-, this was our year to PARTY!

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball team completed an average but interesting season this year. Although, the "Lady Cards" had a young team, the girls pulled together to win some important and exciting games, and play tough against some very good teams. Perhaps, the highlight of this year's season, was the first time the girls played Lisbon. The girls pulled off their first win against Lisbon, in the history of Ellendale girls' basketball. In fact, the girls proceeded to beat the Broncos again, in the Conference tournament, which was held in Oakes. Deb Werre was named to the All-conference team during this tournament. The Lady Cards will be losing three players — Deb Henke, Deb Werre, and Suzanne Brandenburger, due to graduation. However, the Cards will be looking for nothing but good things, from both their returning players and their new hoopsters. Good luck!

The 1989-90 Ellendale Cardinals boys basketball team finished with a record of 10-8. The Cardinals advanced to the championship game in the District III tournament before falling to Marion. They also finished third in the Southeast Conference. Despite the winning season and finishing higher than the pre-season prognosticators predicted, the season ended on a bitter note. Ellendale was defeated in the challenge game (56-50) by LaMoure for the right to advance to regionals.

The highlights included the semi-final victory over Oakes (54-48) in the District tourney and two close come from behind victories over LaMoure. In the first LaMoure win the cards overcame a fourteen point defeat late in the third quarter to post a 56-53 victory.

The seniors provided excellent leadership all season and will truly be missed. This team was a group of "winners" and was a class act in every situation. They really represented themselves, their school, and the community well. This year's seniors are: Corey Blumhardt, Tim Deitemeyer, Bill Filbert, Randy Hoffman, Jeff Kaiser, Kevin Kusler, and Clay Wagner.

The EHS wrestlers had an excellent year. They placed high in many tournaments including taking second place in regions. Six wrestlers qualified for state with John Klipfel placing second. The four seniors that graduated will be missed. Coach Ulmer and Coach Hack showed the wrestlers many moves and worked them hard to make them better. The grapplers put in many long hard hours in the wrestling room and even painted their locker room with fighting cardinal colors. With many wrestlers returning the team has a good chance of winning the region next year. The EHS grapplers are superior by all means.

"I taught 'em that move!"

This year our volleyball team make a big improvement. We were able to win three matches and a near win with Napolean and Enderlin. All of us look forward to next season, but will heartily miss our fellow friends and awesome volleyball players, Denise, Deb, and Nikole. We will especially Miss Coach Rondeau who kept with us even at our worst moments. Even so, we anticipate a new coach and another chance at regionals. Good job, girls and good luck in 1991!

"Where'd the net go?"

Just Another Day in Band ?

One Musical Moment In Time . . .

The High School Chorus covered a wide range of songs this year. Although they gave only two concerts, we heard a variety of music ranging from classical Latin in the Spring Concert to a Jingle Bells Medley in the Christmas Concert that adapted that familiar tune into different styles of music. The Swing Choir gave a Pops Concert in March with the Jazz Band and Junior High Stage Band, singing music from the 50's, 60's, and today. Ensembles participated in the District Small Group Contests and the Boys' and Girls' Chorus also competed in the District Large Group Contest.

This year the Take II Drama Club presented HELP! I'M TRAPPED IN A HIGH SCHOOL!

The play began when four preppy students from the Valley were sent by mistake to "Last Chance High;" A place for misfits. Arriving there they had to deal with the dingy secretary, Miss Culpepper, acted by Denise Hoffman, and the strict, moody principal, Mr. Bronco Ranchwear, portrayed by David Carlson. During the play Ranchwear's scheme of ripping off supplies from the school was discovered, and the students were freed from their confinement.

After a lot of hard and many early hours of practice, the Drama Club pulled the play off with much success. Denise Hoffman and David Carlson were best actor-actress, Nicole Maddox and Kardell Blumhardt were best supporting actor-actress, and Michelle Mueller, Joey Jerke, and Barb Jury all received honorable mention. As a whole, everyone did a great job!

Doing Time on Annual Staff

Your Redbird Staff was kept busy taking pictures, getting the facts and writing it into copy, and designing pages, selling advertisements to raise enough money to finally produce this year's annual. There were many long hours on Monday evenings and weekends but also many original ideas and companionship and even a few strange but enjoyable happenings!

The Teddy Grahams!!

This year, once again, the Cardettes put in many long hours of hard work to look great. All that practicing paid off when they brought home two trophies from State Competition. They received second place in the Precision division and third place in the Novelty division, as the Teddy Grahams. The team really pulled together and became close this year, only saying good-bye to two seniors. They also learned a lot from each other, especially since seven members were new this year. Keep up the great work, Cardettes!

Way to go Churk! Celebrities speak on Homecoming 1989

Tell, us again Grampa Nate! The story of Homecoming 1989

Homecoming 1989 was certainly a time to celebrate and leave footprints on the hearts of all present and past students! These moments of strong unity will bring pleasant memories of the time we had together. The spirit award was won by our mighty Senior class; our team had a momentous win over Kindred; and the victory dance was a hot, pacing time with Tuna twirling the tunes. Yes, Homecoming 1989 did etch timeless memories on our hearts!

The glorious night of April 7, 1990, started off with an elegant banquet at the Ellendale Ranch. Entertainment was performed by the Ellendale Girls Swing Choir. Everyone dressed formally and walked proudly at the Grand March.

When the clock struck nine couples started to dance the wonderful night away to the jamming tunes of Sentra Fusion. At 12:30 the dance was over and everyone went their separate ways. What special moments to remember.

A Moment to Say

Farewell . . .

CC1

Marina came to us as a stranger from a foreign land, but she leaves us as a friend who has not only learned, but also taught. She shared her lifestyle and language, but more importantly her personality and friendship. All of us enjoyed her and we will all miss her. Thank you Marina for sharing with us — we will never forget you.

CC2

Mr. Babcock, more commonly known as the infamous "Mr. B." Mention of the name brings a grin to the faces of those he taught and those who were fortunate enough to know him through out his years at EHS. We will all remember his "Interesting facts," "short stories," or even those short stories whose morals should be taken to heart. Mr. Babcock will always be remembered when any of us ponder our years at EHS. We thank you, Mr. B. for your dedication patience, and time you contributed to the students and faculty alike. We wish you all the best in your retirement.
